

PLAY OPENS TONIGHT

Jimmy D. McCollum; Larry Applegate, son; Joe Basta, Papa; Shirley Mansfield (seated), Mama; Bev Olsen (kneeling), daughter.

Comedy To Be 'Papa Is All,' CBC Students Admitted Free

CBC students will be admitted free to the coming presentation of "Papa Is All."

The delightful comedy about a Pennsylvania Dutch family that looked forward to life without father will open at the Pasco High Auditorium today (November 21) and continue for two performances through November 22, starting at 8:15 each evening. Tickets are $1.00 for adults and 50c for children. CBC students will be admitted free by presenting their ASB cards at the door.

Unlike most comedies that deal with family life, Patterson Greene's "Papa Is All" presents a mother and two children who come to realize that something desperate must be done to remove Papa from society. For Papa is a thoroughly mean man who has religious scruples against any and all things that would give his family convenience or pleasure. Mama is forbidden a friendly association with neighbors and daughter Emma prompts Papa's wrath by falling in love with a "foreigner" — a surveyor who does not come from Lancaster County. Papa tells everybody in town that son Jake is not right in the head in order to prevent his getting work on another farm.

Not a soul in the Mennonite community is reluctant to hear Jake bring the news that Papa is "all"—dead and gone, that is. Papa does return, however, but not for long. What his fate is, and how finally Papa is really done in, unfolds in the third act of this wholesome comedy.

Joe Basta has the role of the tyrannical Papa in the Drama Club's presentation of "Papa Is All," and Shirley Mansfield will be seen as the gentle Mama. Larry Applegate will play the son Jake, who wants to simplify farm-life by the installation of machinery. Beverly Olson will portray Emma, who precipitates a crisis by stealing away to the movies with her suitor. Bonnie Christianson and Jimmie McCollum have other roles. Delores Vaage has directed the comedy, and the setting has been designed by Emmett Hoynes.

Second Speaker Of Lecture Series To Narrate Film About Russians

Russ Potter, a new name in the field of travelogues, will appear here December 3 with the wit and charm that have given him a name as a radio and TV personality known to national audiences. He will speak in the Pasco High auditorium at 11 p.m.

Potter is the second speaker in the annual CBC lecture series. Admission will be free, both to CBC students and to the public. School will be dismissed for the occasion so that students and faculty will be able to attend.

Mr. Potter will present his latest film, which is "Flight To the Soviet," a warm human motion picture report on the people of the USSR. This film is being presented by a top narrator. Russ Potter traveled 10,000 miles throughout the Soviet Union to produce this sponsored, authentic film. He traveled through Leningrad, Moscow, Kiev, Yalta, Odessa, and Tbilisi. The film not only shows the attractions in the cities, but it shows the Russian people at home, at work, and at play. Mr. Potter approaches the subject as a reporter, and the lecture-film will be an entirely non-political presentation.

Mr. Potter, as the script writer and narrator of the Laguna Beach, California, "Pageant of The Masters," has become the favorite of hundreds of thousands all over the world. This is a MUST to see.

Unused Scholarship Money Still Available To Students

Are all available scholarships being used by CBC students? There are four scholarships with a total value of $380 still open. These are: Kennewick Exchange Club, Pasco Parent-Teachers Association, Pasco Lady Eagles, and P.E.O. (See current catalog.)

"Civic scholarships give a personal interest in Columbia Basin College, and worthy students are helped," Mrs. Stappler said today. "We wish there were more Civic Scholarships for Richland students; since 45 per cent of CBC enrolled are from Richland," she added.

Scholarships are reviewed at the end of each quarter and determined by the Faculty Committee. Members of the committee are: Mr. Strong, science; Mr. Olmstead, speech; Mrs. Percy, commercial; Mr. Askegaard, administration; Mr. Killingsworth, vocational; Mr. Lisk, math; and Mrs. Stappler, chairman.

Students who have availed themselves of scholarships for this quarter are: Daryl Johns, Pasco Kiwanis; Jane Ziegler, Wash. Congress of

Debators Face Stiff Opponent

CBC was one of twenty-two colleges entered in the junior and senior divisions debate tourney at WSC last weekend. This debate started on Friday, October 24 and went through Saturday, October 25.

The colleges that were entered in this contest were: Saint Martins, Southern Oregon College of Education, Gonzaga, Seattle University, Pacific Lutheran College, University of Oregon, University of Idaho, Montana, Idaho College, Carroll College, Columbia Basin J. C., Montana School of Mines, University of Washington, North Dakota State, Whitworth, WSC, Pacific University, Northwest Nazarene, Lower Columbia, Yakima and Boise J. C.'s CBC's entries were: Sully Bayless, Lynn Bryson, senior division; Daryl Johns, Roger Brown, junior division; Dayle Johnson, Bill Dickey, junior division. The results were: Sully Bayless-Lynn Bryson, won 1, lost 5; Daryl Johns-Roger Brown, won 1, lost 5; Dayle Johnson-Bill Dickey, won 2, lost 4.

The CBC debate teams will be warming up soon for their contest to be held at the College of Idaho, next January. The debate question being used at all of these debates is: Resolved: That Further Development of Nuclear Weapons Should Be Prohibited by International Agreement.

Unsung Heroes Need Reward

The important role of the athlete in the activity program of any school is generally well recognized, and those who participate often and well in sports are usually rewarded for their efforts by some sort of permanent emblem or trophy. But just as important to the full development of a college are the unsung heroes of the student council, the decorating committees, the activity clubs, and the hundred and one other little jobs and responsibilities which these students undertake.

It has been brought to the attention of the COLLEGIATE that some form of recognition is long overdue these participating students and that perhaps it could be undertaken to interview one of them and publish an account of the interview in each issue. The report would contain something of the student's background in high school, the activities in which he is now taking part, and his plans for the future.

Then, at the end of the year, the most deserving of this list could be awarded a trophy or something equally appropriate, much as are the athletes of the school. In this manner, perhaps more students could be induced to join activities, and the activities themselves would begin to assume their rightful important position in the eyes of the students.—By Maryann Long.

Title

BY BOB PARNELL

TV or not TV, that is the question. This phrase is repeated in living rooms, dens and kitchens where families make decisions on what to do with leisure time on winter evenings and weekends. The phrase is creeping, too, into the glassed confines of radio, TV and music stores who specialize in Hi-Fi and Stereo equipment.

Many TV sets have gone

their cycle and homes and families have grown to the point where a new set or a second set would be handy for another location in the home. But, once a listener-viewer gets exposed to Hi-Fi and it's new offspring, stereo, then the question creeps into the buyers mind and then into the conversation. TV or not TV?

Hi-fidelity and Stereo music have found willing ears in a generation which has been somewhat hypnotized by a one-eyed monster where sound has always been secondary. Many have heard music in all of its real quality for the first time in music stores and have been introduced to a new language of highs, lows, treble, plus the mysterious woofer and tweeter terms.

This month two local radio stations, KALE and KORD will put aside competitive efforts and combine forces to air the first broadcast of Stereophonic music in Eastern Washington. One station will originate one track of the recording while the second will broadcast the other track. The listener must listen to two radio sets, each on a separate station. The result should be a new and exciting listening treat in this day and age of the "nifty fifty." This should please the Stereo cult who admittedly would not miss good music to see Mr. Sunday Night present World War II with the original cast.

Music Teacher Wills $1902.54 In Scholarships

A check for $1,902.54 has been received by CBC officials from the estate of the late Ethel Mary Hopkinson, long time Pasco resident.

The money is to be used to found a scholarship fund for piano. Awarding of the scholarships is to be left to the discretion of the Pasco-Kennewick Altrusa Club, of which Mrs. Hopkinson was a member. It will be called the Ethel Hopkinson Fund.

Mrs. Hopkinson came to this area before World War I as a bride and had taught music here since that time.

She had originally willed the money to Whitman College in Walla Walla, but changed her will after Columbia Basin College was established in her home community and when the Altrusa Club became interested in scholarships for the new junior college.

The football season has come to a smashing close at CBC. Coach Akins' Hawks compiled 1 win and 7 defeats this season. This is by far not an impressive record in any man's language. For the past three years CBC has managed to win only one game each year.

But I want to salute the guys on this year's Hawks team. There isn't a man who didn't play his best all the time. Sometimes his best wasn't good enough. CBC should pay special tribute to players like John Gordon, Fred Schaffer, Ray Carter, Gene Bates, Dave Milam, Craig Carl, Terry Thompson, Chuck Hoover, Glenn Humphrey, and Merrill Blair, who gave CBC their best. I hope CBC appreciates them a little.

Coach Akins should also be praised. It seems that for the past three years, Coach Akins has had everything but luck. Without a doubt he made mistakes, which is only human. I want to say to Coach Akins, that although he has had little success for the past three years, this man has never given up. Hal Akins deserves the highest acclaim that each can receive. It takes real skill to work with a losing team.

Hank Coplin's basketball team looks promising this year. Looks like another state championship for the Hawks.

A rumor has been going around that a seven foot, one inch basketball player will be enrolling in CBC very soon. If this is true, "wow" what a team CBC will have.

* * *

Hank Coplin's bowling classes are in full swing now. Coplin has two bowling classes which do all of their bowling at the Clover Leaf Lanes in Pasco. "Hank's" classes are in high gear in league play. There are 14 teams participating in league play. The names of the teams are as follows:

League Standings

10 Class	11:30 Class
Pin Heads	1. Poor Four
100's	2. 3 Pros
4 Nites	3. The Group
Pen Pins	4. 4 Fireballs
1 X's	5. Dubbs
	6. Failures
	7. Greasers
	8. Pin Men

"Cal" and "Al" of the Clover Leaf Lanes have given these teams instruction in the art of bowling. "Cal" and "Al" are qualified instructors, and they do a very good job.

The man with the highest bowling average is Terry Simpson with a 170 average.

The following is the list of the team members, and their names.

Hawks Lose To Montana State Freshmen

By ROGER COOPER

CBC's Hawks closed what has turned out to be a disappointing season recently, as they dropped their last two games, being snowed under by Olympic 48-0, and losing to the M.S.U. freshmen 14-0.

In the Olympic clash the Bremerton team, displaying an awesome amount of power, scored handily in every quarter to completely overrun the Hawks. They crossed the goal line three times in the first quarter, once in the second, once in the third, and twice in the fourth, to give them their total of 48. The Hawks seriously threatened only once, but the drive came too late as the final gun sounded with the ball on Olympic's nine-yard line.

Statistic wise the margin wasn't quite as glaring. In total offense the Rangers had the edge, 246-164. One bright spot for the Hawks was in the passing department. With Ken Jacobs doing the throwing at a 50% clip, CBC chalked up 100 yards through the air to Olympic's 41.

In the game with Montana the Hawks just couldn't get rolling and consequently saw their chances of ending the year on a winning note slip through their fingers.

Workouts Begin Nov. 15 For Defending Cage Champions

By ROGER COOPER

Coach Hank Coplen greeted 41 aspiring basketballers recently, as workouts were opened for the league's defending champions. Although this year's team will be a little short on varsity lettermen, indications are that the Hawks will again field a contender.

The returnees from last year's squad are Norris Brown and Bill Johnson, two former Richland stars. On hand from last year's J.V. squad are Russ Burks, Cordell Harder, and Larry Lautenslager, all of whom should give the Hawks added strength. Besides the above mentioned, there are several others, too numerous to list here who promise to play important roles in the team's success this year. All-state high school material is also included here.

The Hawks received added encouragement when it was announced that 7'1" Bob Pollum has tentatively planned to enroll at CBC next quarter. Pollum is a native of Allen, Kansas and is presently staying with friends in Richland.

The Hawks will get their first chance to prove their might on December 2nd when they will tangle with Lewis & Clark Normal at Lewiston.

Football Personalities

Playing guard position on the CBC football team this year is 5'11" Merrill Blair.

Hailing from Everett, Wash., Merrill moved to Kennewick and attended Fruitland Grade School. In the sixth grade he joined the baseball team in the catchers position. While conditioning himself for this position, he also began his coaching career.

Merrill's first, and last, student trainee happened to be a female "Ted Williams" who proceeded to use the Louisville Special on the softball but unfortunately continued to miss the ball and clubbed to fragments the asphalt playground around her. In spite of Merrill's coaching abilities his homeroom team won the baseball championship.

During his first year of junior high school, Merrill and a few followers were the first seventh graders to make the ninth grade team and also were the first to receive their first Kennewick junior high letter. As center and defensive line-backer, Merrill helped the Kennewick "Cubks" tie with Grandview for the Valley Championship. The following two seasons Merrill captured both center and defensive line-backer positions for profitable football seasons and guard-forward position for a satisfying basketball warm-up.

High School football didn't pose a problem, for Merrill regained center and defensive line-backer positions and helped lead the "Lions" to a second place bracket during his sophomore year.

The last winning Kennewick football club was during Merrill's senior year. They won all but two of the games and their quarterback set a record for individual scoring which hasn't been broken since.

College ball has taken over Merrill and he is generally seen in guard position on the strong CBC line. His next ambition is to become football coach at some school and teach the fundamentals of this great sport.

From Our Readers

Have you ever been to a school that has good school spirit? If you have, you will be able to see that CBC is lacking somewhat.

CBC is rated as the fourth junior college in the state in size, but where can we rate in school spirit; probably the lowest in the state. But if we as students get behind our school and our team we will always be a top rate school and have a top rate team. The team will be able to break holes in the football line and make a fast break in basketball if there is a cheering section at the games.

There is no reason why the seats on the home side of the stadium could not be filled with screaming students yelling for their team to go on. There are about 750 students here at CBC. Why can't there be about 750 students at the stadium and gym when the game time comes around. If we as CBC students want to win not only in sports but as a highly rated scholastic junior college we have to have school spirit. Surely everyone can spare thirty minutes of the day on Friday when there is a pep assembly, but merely being at a pep assembly does not constitute school spirit. Everyone should yell. If the student body yells—the team wins. We should be proud to say, win or lose, that we are from CBC and are proud of the team.

Learn the yells and above all when there is a pep assembly come out and yell. Think about the school spirit and you will readily see that CBC is lacking.

Let's make CBC the top school in the junior college division. Remember, if the student body yells — the team wins.

Republican Club Plans Meetings For Delegates

The Young Republicans are now making plans to send one of their members to a meeting of the State Republican Convention next summer as an observer. They are also arranging to send one to the State Legislature in January.

This spring they will have the opportunity to attend a political science conference at one of the nearby colleges plus some meetings on our own campus.

As of right now the club is in the process of forming a constitution. Dell McVicker, a representative of the committee, stated some of the following facts from their probable constitution: The name of the organization shall be the "Colum-

Annual Staff Named; Sales Start Monday

Advanced sales of the 1959 annual will begin November 23 and will continue through-bia Basin College Young Republicans." It is founded to advance the interests of Young Republicans and active participation of young people in politics and to assist at their discretion the election of Republican candidates. Anyone under the age of forty years is eligible for membership. It is not necessary that they be attending school here at CBC; however, the officers must be students here.

Anyone wishing to become a member of this club would be wholeheartedly accepted, as new members are needed.

out the week. The annuals will cost $5.00.

Students buying annuals may pay $2.50 down and $2.50 when they receive their annuals on May 22, the distribution date.

Roger Cooper has been selected as sports editor and Larry Harrkel will be the new business manager. Other members of the staff are: Donna Moe, Bill Dickey, Andrea Olson, Joan Richards, Ted Parks, Sherry Bennett, Don Provencher, John Jackson, Carol Curry, Juanita Abbott, Elvira Carpenter, Ted Kuykendahl, and Larry Applegate who will assist in sports.

Editor, Shirley Mansfield, says the schedule for individual pictures would be posted in the near future.

Office Reveals School Calendar For Nov., Dec.

Mr. George Askegaard, CBC registrar, released the schedule for the rest of the quarter early this week. It is as follows:

Thursday and Friday, November 27 and 28, Thanksgiving Vacation.

New Faculty

Mr. Emmett Hoynes is in his first year of teaching at Columbia Basin College. Before coming to Pasco, he taught in the Fort Benton, Montana, high school.

A graduate of Montana State University in Missoula, Montana, Mr. Hoynes majored in English.

He was born in Malta, Montana, and served in the United States Army from October 1954 until October 1956. He is married and has one child, a boy 2½ years old.

Mr. Hoynes is teaching English 101X. He stated that he liked teaching in Pasco.

Honor Society Promotes Scholarship, Activities

Mr. James Stakkestad, advisor of the CBC Honor Society, states that "The purpose of this honorary club is to promote scholarships and cultural activities at CBC," in order to make it a better college.

The president is Carmen Lundgren and there are approximately a dozen sophomores left from last year. Freshmen are eligible to become members at the beginning of the spring quarter after they have received two quarters of grades and have a grade point average of 3.2 or better.

Other necessary qualifications are good attitude toward scholarship and school. The final decision of new members will be decided by the sophomore members of the Honor Society and there will be a Tapping Assembly in the spring in which the chosen members are tapped on the shoulder and invited to become members.

The meetings will take place once a month when it is reorganized again.

Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, December 15, 16, 17, are the days for final exams for fall quarter.

Students may register for winter quarter Thursday and Friday, December 18 and 19. Christmas vacation will be Friday, December 18 thru Monday, January 5.

Final examinations will be given in 2-hour sessions. The times will be from 8-10, 10:30-12:30, and 1:00-3:00 p.m. These examinations must be taken when scheduled. Those students who work during any of these test periods should make arrangements to be absent from work during that time.

Final registration without penalty must be completed by 3 p.m. on Friday, December 19.

Darkroom Added To Save Money For Collegiate

A new darkroom, located near the Physics lab will be completed and ready for use next week.

As far as the contract work goes, it is complete. However, the enlarger, paper and some of the chemicals have not yet arrived. The enlarger is expected next week and the room will be ready to use then.

The photographers who will be using this room are: John Jackson, Ivor Hale, Karl Monge, and Jim McColl. There is a considerable range of interest in it as well as backing.

By having this darkroom the college paper will save a great deal of money. They will develop their own pictures where previously they had to send them downtown for developing purposes.

To avoid that run-down feeling be sure to look both ways before crossing the street.
